

Help Needed

- 6 Have you seen a runaway pancake?
- 14 I was cooking a batch of pancakes this
19 morning and one ran away!
- 28 Mr Agarwal said that he saw a pancake near
37 the lake but I could not track it down.
- 45 Mrs Sullivan said that she found a pancake
54 under her bed but it is not there now.
- 62 The runaway pancake is short and round and 66 it smells like batter.
- 74 Will you help me to look for it?

Quick Questions

1. Where did Mr Agarwal see a pancake?

2. I was cooking a batch of pancakes
What do you think the word batch means? Tick one.

- pancakes
- oven
- group

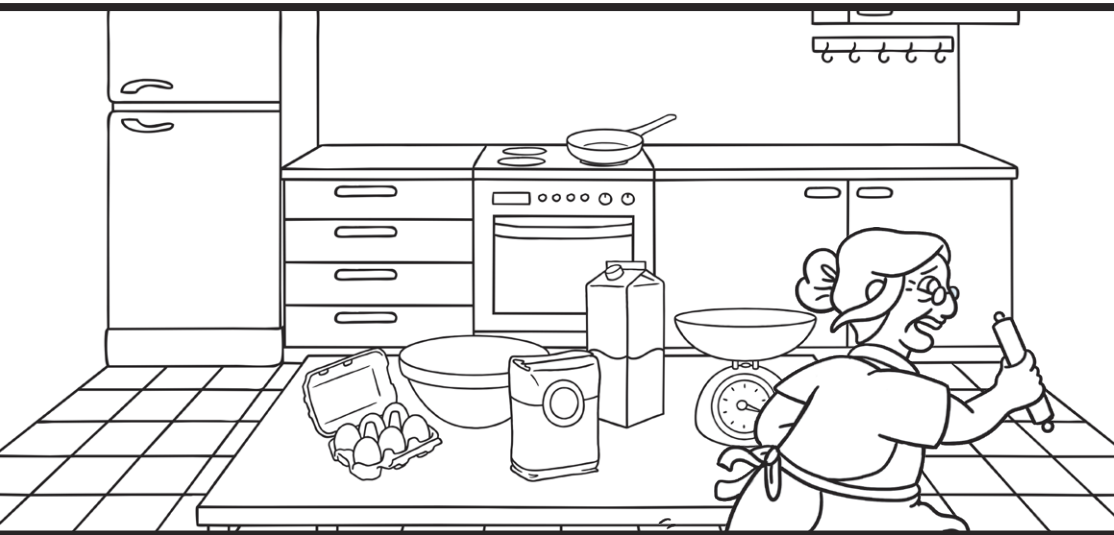

3. How do you think that the author of this text feels? Why?

4. What do you think that the author of this text will do next?

Help Needed

- 6 Have you seen a runaway pancake?
14 I was cooking a batch of pancakes this
19 morning and one ran away!
28 Mr Agarwal said that he saw a pancake near
37 the lake but I could not track it down.
45 Mrs Sullivan said that she found a pancake
54 under her bed but it is not there now.
62 The runaway pancake is short and round and
66 it smells like batter.
74 Will you help me to look for it?

Answers

1. Where did Mr Agarwal see a pancake?

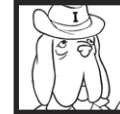

Mr Agarwal saw a pancake near the lake.

2. I was cooking a batch of pancakes

What do you think the word batch means? Tick one.

- pancakes
 oven
 group

3. How do you think that the author of this text feels? Why?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think that the author feels upset because they cannot find the pancake that ran away from them.

4. What do you think that the author of this text will do next?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think that the author of this text will ask more people if they've seen the pancake.