

Y3/4 English Homework

Remember to read your reading book and write in your diary at least 5 times and practise your spellings before your spelling test on Friday.

We have enjoyed getting to know our new children in our class over the last couple of weeks. Can you write some sentences to tell a new classmate all about yourself. You could talk about what you look like, your family and friends or your hobbies. Remember to use capital letters and full stops and show us your best handwriting.

Challenge:

If you'd like to challenge yourself, see if you can extend your sentences using subordinating conjunctions such as when, after, if or although.

This week we have been reading a book called 'How to wash a woolly mammoth'. Now read these sentences from the book and spot the missing capital letters and full stops. Can you add them in?

fill the bath tub if your mammoth is feeling thirsty, this may take a while add bubbles add the mammoth when all else fails, there is always cake
